Getting Started

"God loved the world so much that he gave his one and only Son. Anyone who believes in him will not die but will have eternal life" (John 3:16).

The words above from the apostle John are a pretty powerful message! It is hard to believe in much of anything when everything has been taken away from us - right? Wrong! You can be separated from your home, your family, your job, or your friends. But you can never be separated from Jesus! Jesus opens his heart to his brothers and sisters everywhere!

This book is a study guide and a history lesson in one. "I know!" I never was too enthused about history myself, but there is some very important information here!

The history in this book is important. It will help you learn how it happened that every person who has ever lived in the world needed a Savior and why every person who lives in the world today needs a Savior.

You may have already studied the life of Jesus and know he is that Savior. This history tells why God sent Jesus to save us.

Each of the five chapters begins with a list of goals marked with a small star (*). These goals tell you what you will be learning in that chapter. There are a few questions after each section, and a test at the end of each chapter. If you read each section carefully, you should be able to answer the questions correctly and without much trouble.

At the end of each group of questions, you will be given a page number to which you can turn to check your answers. Turn to that page, and you will find the answers at the very bottom of that page. Check your answers carefully, correcting any mistakes. Make sure you understand all the answers before reading any further.

At the end of the book there is a final test. Before you complete the test, go back and review the chapter tests. When you have completed the final test, you can give it to the person who gave you this book, or mail it to the address on the back cover of this book.

I hope you enjoy this study. Remember, "The dark night of evil is nearly over. The day of Christ's return is almost here. So let us get rid of the works of darkness. Let us put on the armor of light" (Romans 13:12).

Chapter One

IN THE BEGINNING

As time draws closer to the day you move to a new city, you begin to make plans as to what you will be doing when you arrive there. You will need to find out where you will live, where you will work, and what kind of friends you will have.

The day you have been waiting for finally arrives. You are ready to make a new beginning. All your plans look perfect. You are ready to face your new life.

But no matter how hard you try to plan perfectly, something always seems to go wrong. When you travel to the place where you thought you would be working, the employer tells you he has hired someone else. Or maybe the place where you decided to live is not as good as you thought it would be. Or your desire to make some good friends is ruined when your friends turn out to be bad people. The best-made plans of man do not always work out well. Several thousand years ago our God had a plan for two people, Adam and Eve. God wanted them to live in happiness forever. But Adam and Eve ruined God's perfect plan. In our first study, you will see how God came to the rescue of his people when they destroyed his perfect plan.

The world did not happen by accident. God made the world. He did not make it out of something else, not even out of something scientific-sounding like cosmic dust. He made it out of nothing by using his word. He made everything in the world and on it, except sin, of course. It is because of this fact that each of us owes everything to God.

This chapter will help you see:

- * that the world and people were made by God, according to his plan; and
- * that because people violated God's plan and disobeyed him at the very beginning, God promised to send a Savior instead of letting them all die as sinners.

The very first sentence in the Bible reads, "In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth" (Genesis 1:1). The Bible goes on to explain how God made everything on the earth, the plants, animals, and people.

Creation is the word we use for God's making of the world. To create something is to get the idea for something new and to make it. We say that people can create things in a small way, like inventing the light bulb. But they use the brains or minds God gave them, the hands God gave them, and the materials God gave them. So, they do not create something out of nothing.

God created everything on earth.

Bible passages to read:

Genesis 1:1; Genesis 1:24; Genesis 1:27;

Psalms 8:1-4.

"[God] saw everything that he had made. And it was very good" (Genesis 1:31). God, who is all good and all-powerful, did not make a bad world. He did not make a world full of sin and sinners.

After he had created everything else, God created people in his own image. That does not mean they looked like God. It does mean that they were holy, without sin, and knew God perfectly. God intended the people he made, Adam, his wife Eve, and all the people who would come after them, would live a life in which they loved God and did good to their neighbors. The many good gifts, which God planned for his people, are called blessings.

Answers for page 7: 1. make; 2. God.

Sin means not doing what God wants us to do. God tried to protect Adam and Eve from sin. He told them what they should not do. He warned them what would happen if they sinned.

But God did not make people to be like puppets or robots. God gave the first two people the choice that they could sin if they decided to sin. They could disobey God if they decided to disobey God.

2. Did Adam and Eve have to sin?

Bible passage to read:

Genesis 2:16-17.

God gave Adam and Eve the opportunity to obey him and show their trust in him. He planted a special tree and told them never to eat its fruit, or they would surely die.

The devil came and lied to Eve. He said Eve would be like God if she ate of the special tree. Eve listened to the devil. She picked fruit from the tree, ate some, and gave fruit to her husband, who ate some too. Right away, they knew they did wrong. Then they tried to hide from God. They also tried to lie to God about it.

Maybe that does not sound so bad. But there are not any little sins in God's judgment. God told Adam and Eve not to eat the fruit of that tree.

Because Adam and Eve were the first people, all people born since then have been born with Adam and Eve's sin, just as the color of hair and eyes and skin is passed down from parents to children. Adam and Eve's sin is still with us today.

Answers for page 8: 1. good; 2. Adam and Eve; 3. good gifts.
Answers for page 9: 1. disobeying God; 2. no.

1. Describe in a few words how Adam and Eve disobeyed God.

---

2. How can we tell that Adam and Eve knew they had done something wrong?

3. Just because Adam and Eve sinned, why do people today need a Savior?

People cannot sin without paying the consequences, or price, for sinning. Because Adam and Eve disobeyed God, he punished them. He drove them out of the wonderful home he had made for them into a world ruined by their sin. From now on, their world would be full of hard times, pain and sweat, sickness and death. All of its people would suffer from these troubles.

1. How did God punish Adam and Eve?

Bible passages to read:

Genesis 3:17-19; Exodus 20:5b-6.

But God did love Adam and Eve. He had made them, and he did not leave them in complete sorrow and despair. Right away he gave them, and all the sinful people who would come after them, the promise of a Savior from their sins. That Savior would be our Redeemer, Jesus. To redeem means to buy back. Jesus would pay the price and buy back all people from slavery to Satan and sin.

This meant that Adam and Eve, although they were still very miserable, had comfort and hope from God. They could not do anything to make right what they did wrong. But they knew God would help them.

Answers for page 11: 1. They ate fruit from the tree God told them not to; 2. They tried to hide from God; 3. Because all people inherit sin.

1. Did God forget about Adam and Eve after they sinned?

Bible passages to read:

Psalm 9:9-10; Joel 2:12-13; Psalm 32:1-2;
Joel 2:23; Psalm 111; 1 Corinthians 15:22;
Romans 5:12-21.

There is more reading here than usual, but each passage from the Bible is important. You do not have to read them all at once. Read them one at a time and stop to think about each statement.

God made the world. God made everything in the world. God made everything on the world. The plants, birds, fish, animals, and people were all made by God. When God made the world, it was good and perfect.

But the first people, Adam and Eve, did not obey God. People sin when they do not obey God. Because of sin, Adam and Eve brought sickness, death, pain, and all trouble into the world.

God did not turn away from Adam and Eve. God hates sin, but he wants sinners to be saved from his just anger and the punishment they deserve. God promised he would send a

Chapter Two

HISTORY TEACHES ABOUT GOD AND SINNERS

You and I like things to happen quickly. We do not like to wait. When it is time to eat, we want the food to be handed over to us quickly. We do not like standing in line. When we are not feeling well, we might try to talk about it with our best friend so he or she can make us feel better. One area we wish could be made better quickly is our relationship with other people. By what we may have said or done we, no doubt, have hurt a lot of people besides ourselves. Our sins did not just hurt us, but affected a lot of other people as well. We have told these people we are sorry, but they just do not seem to believe us. Or we would like to tell these people we are sorry, but circumstances will not allow it. What does it take for someone to believe we are truly sorry for what we have done wrong?

Adam and Eve experienced these same kinds of feelings. By their actions they hurt God, hurt themselves, and the children they would bring into the world. They wanted a quick solution to their problem. But as you will see in this lesson, it took time for God to carry out his rescue plan. He had to use some pretty severe punishment and testing to bring his people back to him. Let us now take a closer look at history and see how God deals with people who are sinners.

The Savior whom God promised to Adam and Eve did not come right away. For several thousand years people had only the promise that some day the Savior would come.

God gave Adam and Eve many blessings.

In this chapter you will learn that:

- * God's people in Old Testament times were all sinners who needed the Savior;
- * sometimes when God sent them warnings they repented, were sorry they had hurt God and others by their actions and now looked to Jesus for forgiveness. But sometimes they were stubborn in their sins and refused to repent; and
- * God punishes unrepentant sinners and forgives repentant sinners.

Adam and Eve felt the pain of sin in their own lives, not just when God punished them, but when their son Cain killed his brother Abel. Sin does not just hurt the sinner but everyone else, too. When Joseph's brothers sold him into slavery, they did not just harm him; they also made his old father Jacob very sad.

The most important difference between Cain and Jacob's sons was that Cain was not sorry for his sin and did not ask God to forgive him, while Joseph's brothers were sorry later and asked both God and Joseph to forgive them. They were repentant sinners.

1. What does repenting for sin mean?

2. Do all sinners repent?

---

Bible passages to read:

Psalm 12:1-2; Micah 7:2-4; Judges 3:7; 3:12a; 4:1; 6:1a; 10:6.

Many times the Bible tells us about people who sinned. After we read for a while, it seems that not just bad people sinned, like the men of Sodom or the Pharaoh of Egypt; but good people also sinned, like Noah and King David. That is why the Bible tells us about their sin.

All people are sinners. All people need to repent. All people need the Savior.

God did not want the people he had made to live as miserable, wretched, hopeless sinners. A political writer once said that life is mean, nasty, brutish, and short. But God never meant for it to be that way.

Even before the Savior came, God did a great deal to lead people to repent of their sins. Sometimes he corrected them and sent punishment when they did wrong. He always guided them and taught them what was right through his prophets (God's teachers). God did not want to destroy people. He wanted all of them to come to know him and be saved.

1. Why does the Bible tell us about the sins of people like Noah and King David?

Answers for page 21: 1. to be sorry for sin; 2. no.

2. Why did God punish people if he did not want them to be miserable?

---

3. How did God teach his people what was right?

Bible passages to read:

Psalm 5:4-6; Micah 6:10-13; Isaiah 48:17-18;
Psalm 25:8-10; Joshua 24:25-26.

Why does God punish sinners? Because they need to be punished. Why does he forgive sinners when they repent? Because they need forgiveness, too. God's teaching shows his love and forgiveness. Through his Word he strengthens and keeps his people from being destroyed by sin.

God wants all sinners to be saved. The only way they can be saved is through faith in Christ, whose sufferings, death, and resurrection have earned salvation (deliverance from spiritual dangers) for all sinners. This message of God's love and Jesus' work is called the gospel. When the Holy Spirit leads us to accept the good news of what Jesus has done for us, we become believers in Jesus. Through the gospel, the Holy Spirit creates saving faith in sinners' hearts.

Many sinners hear the gospel, but not all of them become believers in Christ. One of the reasons they do not believe is that some refuse to repent of their sins. They think they do not need the Savior. Therefore, God punishes them to lead them to be sorry for their sins and to help them to see they do need a Savior.

1. Why does God punish sinners?

Answers for pages 22-23: 1. To show us that all people are sinners; 2. To lead them to repent; 3. He sent prophets.

Bible passages to read:

Ezra 9:6-7; Psalm 18:4-6; Psalm 27:7-11.

Punishment can come in different ways, as the Bible shows us. After King David committed adultery (had sex with someone he was not married to), his baby son died. Sometimes a sickness came on a whole country.

Sometimes the country was defeated in war. Sometimes there was no food for the people to eat. When these things were happening as punishment from God, he sent prophets (those who spoke for God) to tell the people they were being punished. After God's prophet condemned King David, David asked God to forgive him.

Not all the bad things that happen to people are punishment from God. Job's troubles were a test to see if he would stay faithful.

1. What kinds of punishment can God send?

2. Give another reason why bad things happen to people besides being punishment from God.

---

(Check your answer on the bottom of page 28)

Bible passages to read:

Ezra 9:6-7; Psalm 18:4-6; Psalm 27:7-11.

Was not there anybody who stayed faithful to God? Well, no one could be perfectly faithful to God, because they were all sinners. But there were people who believed in the promised Savior even through all kinds of trouble.

What kinds of trouble? Well, Joseph was sold as a slave and then put into prison. Daniel was put into prison, and his friends were put into a furnace to burn them up. Both Joseph and Daniel worked for rulers who did not believe in God. They had people all around them who did not believe in God.

Answers for page 24: 1. He wants them to be sorry for their sins and know they need a Savior.

Job's children were killed. He lost all his money. He came down with boils on his skin. Even worse, he had three friends who kept telling him he deserved it all!

1. Give three examples of people in the Old Testament who remained faithful to God's teaching even though they had much trouble in their lives.

2. Do you have to live in a Christian environment to be faithful to God?

---

(Check your answers on the bottom of page 29)

Bible passages to read:

Psalm 10:14; Psalm 15; Zechariah 7:8-10;
Micah 6:8; Psalm 16:2; Psalm 16:7-8.

Review of Chapter Two

All people alive in the world today descended from Adam and Eve, the first man and the first woman. All people who have ever lived descended from them.

Because all people belong to one human family, all have inherited sin from Adam and Eve. All people die because of that inherited sin. All people have troubles and hard times. Bad things happen to all people, and all people do bad things.

Our only help in all these troubles is God. Adam and Eve received the promise that a Savior would come. Though their descendants sinned over and over again, some remembered the promise and hoped for the time when the Savior would come.

Chapter Three

HISTORY LEADS TO THE SAVIOR

People have made promises to us over the years. They have told us they would come to visit us, write us letters, give us some money, or contact someone for us. They have said they would help us when we are in trouble. But we have been frustrated again and again by broken promises. People who make promises to us do not always keep those promises. It makes us wonder if we can really trust anyone completely.

There is one person we can always trust. He keeps every one of the promises he makes to us. His name is God. We read about the promises he makes to us in the Bible. Like Adam and Eve we have disobeyed God. Maybe as children we have disobeyed our parents. Or as husbands or wives we have hurt one another or our children. Perhaps we stole money from a business, or took possessions from a home. Maybe we hit and hurt someone. We may have said or thought bad things about our neighbor. Whatever we have done, we have not followed God's Ten Commandments. Our evil or bad actions made us feel sad, like we were not worth very much.

Our God has shown us we are important to him and he does not want us lost. He gave us a promise that a Savior would come one day to save us from our sins. He did not give us this promise just one time, but over and over again in the Bible. It certainly is a message that needs to be repeated to us. As we look at the history of our world, we see history leads to the Savior.

There is a reason for every single word of history written in the Bible. God himself gave the words and thoughts to Moses and the prophets and had these men write them down for us to study and to learn. These are not just stories, even though they are very interesting to read. God used the words of these men to teach his people then, and he still uses these words to teach people today.

In this chapter, we will learn:

- * God is faithful even when people are not;
- * God kept reminding the people about the Savior;
- * God's prophets taught the people about the Savior; and
- * why this teaching was important after the Savior came.

God gave the law to his people. Sometimes we call that law the Ten Commandments. He gave his people the law to protect them and to guide them in how they lived their lives. But God gave his law for a reason that is much more important. God gave his law to show the people their sin and their need for a Savior.

God gave his prophets the words and thoughts to write about his promise of the Savior. All the writing in the Bible was given to teach the people what the Savior would be like when he came.

Psalm 100:5; Psalm 107:1-2; Isaiah 44:24-26a.

One group of people, out of all the peoples of the world, was chosen by God to be the special guardian of his promise of a Savior. He paid special attention to this people called the People of Israel. God promised the People of Israel that the Savior Jesus would come from them.

However, when he came, the Savior would be for all people. Israel had the special task of making sure the promise was not forgotten.

Bible passages to read:

Genesis 12:1-3; Genesis 15:1;

Genesis 28:13-15.

All through the history of God's people, God kept reminding them he was going to send the Savior. After the great flood, God promised he would never again destroy the earth with a flood because of the people's sins. He repeated the promise of the Savior to Noah.

God promised Abraham the Savior would come from his family. Abraham was called a patriarch because he would be the ancestor of a great people.

God kept repeating the promise. He repeated it to Isaac, to Jacob, to King David.

1. Besides being exciting stories, why should we read about men like Noah and Abraham?

2. Will God ever again destroy the world as he did in the time of Noah?

Answers for page 34: 1. Savior; 2. He had the prophets write the promises.

Answers for page 35: 1. Israel; 2. no.

Noah thanked God for keeping him safe during the flood.

Bible passage to read:

Genesis 8:21-22.

Moses was the first man in history to be given words from God that were to be put down in a book for people to read and follow. What Moses wrote down was put into a book we call the Bible. Moses wrote the Bible books of Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy. Moses and the other men who wrote God's Word were called prophets. Prophets sometimes told what was going to happen in the future.

Another name for the promised Savior is the Messiah, the Christ. The prophecies that Jesus would come to save people from sin were called Messianic prophecies. Both Isaiah and Micah wrote famous Messianic prophecies.

Bible passages to read:

Isaiah 7:14; Isaiah 9:6-7; Isaiah 53; Micah 5:2.

In school, we learn that when a newspaper reporter is going to write a story, the story is not good unless it answers the questions who, what, when, where, why, and how.

God's prophets told all these things about the Messiah. God clearly taught what the Savior would be like and what he would do. When the Savior came, there would be no way they would miss knowing what he was. The people would know him.

The prophets told the people where the Redeemer would be born, what family he would come from, that his mother would be a virgin, how he would act, and many of the things he would do.

Bible passages to read:

Micah 5:2; Micah 5:4-5; Zechariah 9:9; Isaiah 7:14; Isaiah 9:2; Isaiah 9:6-7; Isaiah 11:1-5; Isaiah 11:10-11a.

While the believers among God's people were waiting for the Savior to come, they spoke clearly of their faith in God's promises, even though they still were sinners. They believed and they were saved through faith in the promised Messiah who was to come.

This was true not just when life was easy, but also in hard times. Job had many problems, but still he was able to say, "I know that my Redeemer lives. In the end he will stand on the earth. After my skin has been destroyed, in my body I'll see God. I myself will see with my own eyes. I'll see him, and he won't be a stranger to me. How my heart longs for that day!" (Job 19:25-27).

1. Does God's promise of a Redeemer for sinners mean that God will make life on earth easy for Christians?

Bible passages to read:

Joshua 24:14-18; Psalm 6:4; Micah 7:7;
Job 19:25, 27.

God's promise to sinners of a Redeemer does not mean God will make life on earth easy for believers. Sometimes God is testing his people. Sometimes he is training them to face even greater difficulties in the future.

Even when times are hard, the believer is still a child of God.

1. Do the difficulties in life mean that God no longer loves you?

Psalm 4:6-8; Habakkuk 3:17-18; Micah 7:8-9.

At this time it is good to read all of Psalm 98.

JESUS COMPLETES GOD'S PLAN

Whenever someone commits a crime and is convicted for that crime, we say the person has a bad record.

Jesus Christ also has a record. But his record is not bad. Jesus' record is not filled with wrong deeds or words. Jesus never did anything wrong. His record tells about his birth and life on this earth. His record comes to us from men like Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John who wrote the first five books of the New Testament. These men brought forth evidence from the past to show the world that Jesus is who he said he was. Jesus is the long awaited Savior. Jesus is the one who completes God's plan.

The Gospels written by Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John tell about the birth and life of Jesus. They tell what Jesus taught the people. They also tell how Jesus died and rose again from the dead.

While the writers of the Gospels tell us about Jesus' life, they often go back to the promises of the Messiah. The Gospel writers go back to Adam and Eve, to Noah, to Abraham, to Jacob, and to David. They go back to the words the prophets used.

Why do they do this? The Gospel writers quoted many Messianic prophecies to show that Jesus of Nazareth had fulfilled all those prophecies. By fulfilling the Old Testament Messianic prophecies, Jesus proved he truly is the promised Savior, the Messiah, the Redeemer, the Son of God, God himself. Because he did this, God wants all sinners to believe that Jesus is their only Savior.

In this chapter you will:

- * see how the birth of Jesus fulfilled the prophecies of the birth of the Savior;
- * see how the life and ministry of Jesus fulfilled the prophecies of the life and ministry of the Savior;
- * see how the teaching of Jesus fulfilled the prophecies of what the Savior would teach; and
- * see how the death and resurrection of Jesus fulfilled the prophecies of how God would save all sinners.

For a more detailed explanation of Jesus' life and work as the world's only Savior, reread the ## Bible Teachings course Jesus the Christ.

The prophet Micah said the Savior would be born in Bethlehem. Jesus was born in Bethlehem. The prophet Isaiah said the mother of the Savior would be a virgin. Mary, the mother of Jesus, was still a virgin when he was born. The prophets said the Savior would come from the family of King David. Both Mary, Jesus' mother, and Joseph, his stepfather, belonged to King David's family.

Bible passages to read:

Luke 1:26-35; Matthew 1:18-23; Luke 2:4-7.

Mary wrapped baby Jesus in cloth and laid him in a manger.

Even when Jesus was a baby, his life happened just the way the prophets said it would. Anyone who studies God's Word can see that Jesus was fulfilling what God's Word promised. After he grew up, his life and ministry matched the prophecies of the life and ministry of the Savior. Read the examples in the Bible passages for this section.

1. Did Jesus' life match the prophecies?

2. Can a believer who studies God's Word know that Jesus is the Savior?

Bible passages to read about Jesus' life:
Matthew 2:14; Matthew 2:16-17; Matthew 2:21-23; Matthew 3:1-3.

. . . about Jesus' teaching:

Matthew 4:12-17; Matthew 5:17; Matthew 13:10-17.

. . . about Jesus' death and resurrection:

1 Corinthians 15: 22-25; Matthew 21:1-7;
Matthew 26:31-32; Matthew 27:6-10; Matthew 28:1-10.

It was very important that everything Jesus did was according to God's plan. By fulfilling the prophecies, Jesus was keeping the promise God made long before to Adam and Eve. He was keeping the promise God made so many times to other sinners. If Jesus had not kept the promises, he could not have saved people from their sins.

Jesus was obeying God by doing exactly as God had promised. He was doing what Adam and Eve had not done long ago when they did not obey God.

If Jesus had not been a true man, he could not have died for us. If Jesus had not been true God, he could not have risen from the dead. The only way Jesus could save people from their sins was by carrying out God's plan of salvation. He had to obey his Father perfectly.

patriarchs hoped he would come. All of the prophets had foretold and said he would come.

Jesus obeyed God perfectly. Jesus did everything God required. He lived a life that had no sin. He died to save sinful people.

People who study God's Word can tell from it that Jesus is the Savior. He was born just as the Savior was prophesied to be born. He lived just the way the Savior was prophesied to live. He taught just what the Savior was supposed to teach. He died the way the Savior was to die.

Just as God had promised, Jesus rose again from the dead, to show he had conquered death. He is the Redeemer. God's plan is fulfilled in Jesus.

Chapter Five

SPREADING JESUS' MESSAGE

The message we have about Jesus as our Savior is a message we do not want to keep to ourselves. We want to share that news with others. But you might say, "Well I am not a pastor!" Or "Look at the bad things I have done in my life! Why would God want to use someone like me?" - Why not you? God took a man named Paul who had dragged Christians out of churches and killed them, and made him into Paul, the apostle. God took Peter, a person who was proud and loud and made him into Peter, a humble and dedicated disciple of Jesus Christ. God is counting on you to tell others about his plan for the people in your world.

The land Jesus lived and died in was very small. It was not much bigger than a small state or country. Not very many people lived in Jesus' country. At the time Jesus died, not everyone in the world had heard that the Savior had come.

That was why Jesus told Christians to go out and tell others about him. Every Christian in the world got this order. Spreading the gospel of Jesus is a privilege for every Christian. It is also the duty of every Christian. The work of telling others about Jesus is given to all Christians, no matter who they are or where they are. It does not matter if they are rich or poor, ugly or good-looking, young or old.

The friends of Jesus told others about God's love.

1. Was God's plan to save people finished after the death and resurrection of Christ?

2. Why or why not?

Bible passage to read:

Isaiah 12:4-6.

The Lord's command that every Christian spread the Word of God and the gospel of Jesus Christ is called the Great Commission.

The Great Commission says, "Make disciples of all nations" (Matthew 28:18). This does not just mean that we are to go to every country. It means we are to tell everybody we meet that Jesus has saved us from our sins.

It is good if they already know Jesus. Everyone can use a review of who Jesus is and what he has done!

Jesus sends out his disciples to teach and baptize.

1. Who received the Great Commission?

2. Who should be taught about Jesus?

---

(Check your answers on the bottom of page 64)

Bible passage to read:

Matthew 28:16-20.

Jesus died to save us from our sins. We receive the gift of forgiveness through our faith. Does that mean Christians are not sinners any more? Does it mean Christians are perfect people?

No. Even the followers who first heard the Great Commission were still sinful human beings. Jesus' followers still argued. They were still afraid. They still got sick and died.

Answers for page 60: 1. no; 2. God's Word has not reached all people yet.

1. Were the followers to whom Jesus gave the Great Commission perfect people? _____

2. List two of the problems of the followers of Jesus.

But the Christians who went out to spread the gospel did not have to be perfect people. People who are not perfect can do great things in the name of Jesus. God and Jesus do not expect us to find the courage to do these things by ourselves.

God sends the Holy Spirit to help believers. The Holy Spirit first came to Christians at Pentecost, which was ten days after Jesus returned to heaven. The Holy Spirit has been with Christians ever since.

The Holy Spirit helps Christians lead better lives. The Holy Spirit guides Christians as they study the Bible. The Holy Spirit gives Christians the courage to teach others.

1. Who was sent by God to help Christians?

2. When did the Holy Spirit come?

---

NOTE:

Just a couple of reminders about the work of the Holy Spirit in the life of the Christian. The Holy Spirit calls us to faith. After we believe in Jesus, the Holy Spirit teaches us. The Holy Spirit guides us while we study God's Word.

The Holy Spirit sanctifies us. What does sanctify mean? This means it is the Holy Spirit who helps us to fight off sin in our daily lives and to obey God's commands. The Holy Spirit keeps us in the true faith.

Answers for page 62: 1. all Christians; 2. everybody in the world.

With the help of the Holy Spirit, we can carry out the Great Commission. God will always be with us.

God works through people even though they have weaknesses.

Think of Peter. Peter was a man who denied Jesus three times. But later he healed a cripple in Jesus' name. He was also the man who preached in public when persecutors told him not to. He was also a man who died for his faith.

Think of Paul. Paul was a man who persecuted Christians. But God inspired him to write many books of the Bible. He was the man who went to jail because of his preaching. He was another man who died for his faith.

1. Who helps us spread God's Word?

Answers for page 63: 1. no; 2. They argued. They were afraid. They became sick. They died.

2. Who were two of Jesus' imperfect followers who spread the gospel? _____ and _____

Review of Chapter Five

God wants all people to be saved. Jesus completed God's plan to save all people from sin. When Jesus died, many people still did not know they were saved. There were people who never heard of Jesus. There were whole countries that never heard of Jesus.

Jesus gave his followers an order called the Great Commission. They were to go to all nations and make them disciples, or followers, of Jesus. Although the followers of Jesus were ordinary people, they followed this command. As far as they could travel, they taught about Jesus.

Answers for page 64: 1. Holy Spirit; 2. at Pentecost.

Christians today still have the same Great Commission. They are to teach other people about Jesus. They are to teach at home and far away from home. They are to teach wherever they go. God's plan of salvation will not be finished until everyone knows about Jesus.

10. Do you have to go to another country to teach the gospel to others?

(Check your answers on page 77)

Answers for pages 65-66: 1. Holy Spirit; 2. Peter and Paul.

Conclusion

Peter and Paul did not complete the work given in the Great Commission. Today, that work is still not completed. The Lord wants us, his followers, to teach his Word in the entire world. That work will be completed only when the last person the Holy Spirit wants to bring to faith in Christ hears the gospel and believes its glorious and wonderful truths. Then Judgment Day will come.

Every single Christian alive in the world today has the responsibility to tell other people about Jesus. God's plan about how he was going to save people from sin was finished by Jesus' death and resurrection. God's plan about getting the word out to all people to tell them they have been saved is not finished yet.

You do not have to be rich or famous to tell others about Jesus. Many of the early followers of Jesus had simple jobs like fishermen. Some had work people did not think was good, like that of tax collectors.

Telling others about Jesus will not make you successful in the eyes of the world. In some places, talking about Jesus can still get you persecuted or thrown out of a country.

Then why do Christians tell others about Jesus? Because it is God's plan. Because every single person alive in the world today needs God's love and salvation just as much as Adam and Eve did in the beginning.

That is why this history is important.
